WATCH OUT FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

There are steep snowbanks everywhere, in the driveways, along the roads, in the parking lots. The streets are narrower than ever before, few sidewalks are open; many of them under three feet of snow.

It's dangerous, if not treacherous, for the school children. Three children have been struck by automobiles in the past two weeks.

What can be done? School Superintendent Shea asks the question

Please, he says to the parents, caution your children, as we will do in the schools, to be extra careful in walking to and from school, to take no chances on a motorist being unable to stop in time, to avoid playing in the street, and to walk single file along the roads.

Mr Shea has also cautioned the motorists to be on the lookout for the child behind the snowbank, the

200 Girls need Help

The Wilmington Figure Skating Club, with nearly 200 girls in the program, has announced that it is seeking contributions to keep the program going, this winter.

Funds on hand at the present time allow for only two more Sundays of indoor skating at the Phillips Andover Academy Ice Skating Rink. The time for the rink has been supplied by the Wilmington Recreation Committee.

Because of the existing weather conditions there is little chance that there will be any more outdoor skating.

For all girls wishing to continue the program, after March 9th, there will be a nominal charge of 50 cents, for one child. For two or more children the charge will be $1.00, for each session they attend the rink. This is to help pay for the indoor ice.

Very shortly the girls of the Wilmington Figure Skating Club will be selling stickers, at $1.00 each. The proceeds of the sale will be to advance the indoor skating time. Proceeds of the sale may be turned in to Mrs. Carole Redler, Mrs Shirley Yorks, Mrs Ruth Hebsch, Mrs Florence Ryan, Mrs Eileen Morrisette, Mrs Virginia Rice, Mrs Ann Adams Mrs Barbara Hooper or Mrs Janet Tighe.

The girls are also in need of more volunteer skating instructors

All girls are required to observe safety rules, and written permission is required from parents, as the girls are skating at their own risk on the rink.

Chamber of Commerce Dance Tomorrow

Dr. Gerald Davis, Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce 8th Annual Dinner Dance, has announced that this year's event will be held Friday, at the Thomson Club, in North Reading.

The evening is to be dedicated to sociability, rather than to the business of the Chamber.

Welcome participation by any one, whether or not a member, is the rule. Dr. Davis will be on hand personally to meet the guests.

Further information may be obtained by calling Joseph Maffeo of the Middlesex Bank (658-3361) or Dr. Davis (658-9512), and tickets may be obtained from Mr Maffeo or at the Wilmington Center Pharmacy, from Lillian Woodside.

Planning Board

The Planning Board, Tuesday night, discussed the results of the hearing of the previous Thursday relative to the Conservancy District, proposed for the annual Town Meeting, and found themselves to be just as firmly in favor of the proposal as before.

During the hearing of last Thursday there had been several land owners with wet lands who asked the Planning Board to reconsider their own particular property. At that time there had been a sort of assent on the part of the Planning Board.

But Tuesday, after there were letters asking that other places be also stricken from the map of the proposed Conservancy District the board changed its mind about individual cases.

Part of the review was by the chairman, Mrs. McKie. She stated that the work of Professor Elliot had been good, and that the board had confidence in his work. She noted that in each of the Conservancy Districts the boundaries drawn on the map was for a contour one foot below the actual contour area of the swamp or marsh land depicted, and felt that this was a very conservative approach.

Danny Gillis felt strongly on the subject, and was not going to brook the thought of any delay.

Mr. Gillis' remarks came up after a discussion had been started about the possibility of delaying the actual Town Meeting vote to the next Special Town Meeting. One is expected to be held about two months after the regular Town Meeting, for the purpose of voting a new High School, or an addition to the present one, depending on decisions of the School Committee.

Gillis told his fellow members that a two month delay would be disastrous, because in that time everyone with questionable land, who had a building lot, regular size or of the 'fifty-foot' variety, would be in to get building permits - and this is exactly what we are trying to avoid - the building of cellars in swamps!

Gillis predicted that the Building Inspector would be 'swamped' with 250 applications for building permits, in those two months.

The board voted unanimously to submit the Conservancy District Map as received from Professor Elliot, to the Town Meeting, with the exception of three areas, one in the Barbo development off Concord Street, one in the DiScenzo development in the Southern Industrial Park (Industrial Way) and the one for the Wilmington Re-Development project off Eames Street.

The first two were exempted on the ground that there had been plans previously submitted to the Planning Board, and accepted by the Planning Board. The Wilmington Re-Development was said by the Board to be the result of a vote by the Town, in Town Meeting, and thus it had already established its exemption.

The Board was scheduled to have a meeting on Monday with 'Tax rates to hit $200.00 in five years', the Middlesex County Selectmen are told.

'Pay raise fever grips Beacon Hill'. Everyone wants more money. Everyone's hand is in the till. Where will it stop?

Will it stop in Wilmington, or is the town included in the 'Gimmie Game'? What is the picture about to be unfolded here?

No different than that in any other community. The hands are out, the demands are in. Can we afford them? Are we going to sit back and let our taxes soar sky high?

Right now all the monies that will be paid in taxes by the new industries that have moved into town is being cut up and spoken for. This, in a town that needs fire stations and equipment, sidewalks, new roads, more and better recreation facilities, more schools, a new town hall, more sewers. You name it, we need it.

The taxpayer should know first of all that much of our tax dollar is used to pay off town debts already an obligation of the town, and a 'must' part of our money. The taxpayer should know that the per capita debt in this town is very high, close to the highest in the state.

Now then, who is after 'an increase' in town?

Every department or person working for the town.

In order to talk about it we have to start somewhere, so let's start with the Police Department. They are in the news all over the country, and soon will be here.

The Police Department wants an across the board raise of approximately $1,000 per man. This, of course, along with uniforms and all the usual fringe benefits. The increase, if the Town Meeting votes for it, will put our police scale in line with the police in the cities of Lowell and Cambridge.

Is the police job of this town as hard as that of either of those cities? Is it as dangerous? Do they have the parking problems, the college students, the traffic problems?

Sure, they have work to do, but do they have it that hard? Do you as a taxpayer want to increase their already good salary with another big bite? Do you, the taxpayers, get a $1000 increase in your tax checks?

The town has always hiked the Fire Laddies salary the same amount as the Police Department. Can you see our firemen getting about $1,000 more per man this year too? With the hours they a committee from the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, and a letter had been received from that group. The letter was a long one, and contained an offer to help establish and develop the idea of Conservancy District in Wilmington. At the same time it pointed out that there were discrepancies and that the Chamber believed that there would be serious losses of tax revenues to the town, if the present proposal went through the Town Meeting unaltered.

The Monday afternoon meeting with the committee from the Chamber of Commerce had been snowed out, and was rescheduled for Wednesday evening.

But one other meeting for Monday was not snowed out. Mrs. McKie commented on it. It was a 'neighborhood meeting' on Oakdale Road, and the people who were to attend insisted that it be held.

Our Country Cousin

have? The take-home pay of the 'moonlighters' would stagger your imagination.

Again, should the fire fighter's job in this town have the same pay schedule as the Cambridge and Lowell firefighters? Is it really that tough to sleep on the town's time and then be all rested up for the daytime job? It might be an idea at this time to put the firemen on an eight hour shift plan, and rid us of the present schedule; to let the boys sleep on their own time. The town meeting can pass on their salaries after all collective bargaining is over. The town meeting does have the final say.

The other town departments want their big cut of pie also, this in spite of the yearly raises they have been getting, plus longevity. Whew! There are some receiving a low rate of pay, which should be brought up. Why give it all to the Fire and Police Departments?

The School Department will have a big bite of the pie for new teachers, new custodians, school, etc., almost all 'built-in'. The increase looks like a 15% to 25% figure.

The School Department should take a hard and fast look at all the fat in the budget and pare it to a minimum. Any new programs they are advocating should be shelved until we can really afford them, or give them a second look and see if we need them.

Also, what happens to the Hopkins money, if the school isn't ready in September? Those dollars are in the budget!

The town's new folk should be informed of the necessity of their taking part in the town meeting. It isn't as difficult as it might seem. They should know the issues. They should be aware of the fact that even after a vote is taken, the article can again be brought up for reconsideration, and be changed. They should be encouraged to stay for the entire town meeting, thereby thwarting any shotgun tactics similar to what we have had in the past.

The new home owners in town should be the biggest segment of the town's taxpayers in the next Town Meeting. This group, along with the other tax payers, should keep their eyes and ears open, and assist the Town Manager, the Selectmen, and the Finance Committee to maintain a reasonable tax rate, and a fair pay increase for the Firemen and the Policemen, and the Town Employees. Would you believe a $4 to $10 increase in the tax rate this year?

Remember: There is no sense in saving at the spigot and spending at the bung.

Country Cousin

located there started with a report that the Finance Committee had voted to approve of changing the area to Industrial District.

This caused a general indignation on the part of the members. Each of them spoke on the subject. Gillis wanted to know how many hours the Finance Committee had put into discussions of zoning for Wilmington, and what made the Finance Committee so expert.

The report was also given that the Finance Committee had voted No on the next article, Article 68, which would allow the sewerage plans for a motel to be allowed by the Board of Health, instead of having to have connection with a regular sewer main.

The board was not in favor of rezoning the land to Industrial.

Selectmen's Meeting

Town Manager Sterling Morris, last night, in a Selectmen's meeting that was held two days late because of the storm, took time to talk about the Questions on the Ballot, for next Saturday's election.

Mr Morris was quite concerned about Question Two, which, he said, could easily be misunderstood.

The first question, he said, could cost the town about $17,000, if voted in the affirmative (Yes). He also said that it could cost the town half of what is now being paid for Health and Life Insurance of its employees, which is $45,000. Item One, Morris told the Selectmen, did not mention money, but that was the money that is involved.

The Question is in effect asking the voter if the town should increase the health and life insurance payments for Town Employees.

Question Number two was the one that the TM was really worried about, though. He termed it 'misleading', in that it named 'retired' employees, and the town pays, at this time, nothing for retired employees.

If it is voted, Morris said, he had no idea of what the cost would be, because no one has any knowledge of how many people are potentially. He didn't know, he said, about the retired school teachers, and the about to be retired school teachers, but believed that they would be eligible.

Morris emphasized that he had no way of estimating the cost of Question No. 2.

George Boylen, Chairman, spoke up to say that the Wilmington Town Government is a sort of Do-It-Yourself form of government.

Whether or not the tax rate goes up $2 or $10 will depend on the action of the people at the annual Town Meeting, Boylen said.

Boylen was willing to wager that the Wilmington tax rate would go up the least of any of the surrounding communities, depending on the amount of re-imbursement (from State and Federal governments) and whether or not the people in the Town Meeting followed the recommendations of the Town Meeting.

Mrs. Drew had her ideas of the Finance Committee recommendations.

'Some of them are terrible' she said 'and I mean every word of it.' She hoped that the voters would not just follow all of the recommendations made by the Finance Committee.

Snow Plowing

Morris spoke of his concern for the town's snow plowing equipment. Four trucks are out of commission, because of the heavy work load of the past two weeks. The Walters Snow Fighters have been out of commission since the last storm, of two weeks ago.

Miceli questioned him as to which trucks were not working, and it developed that the 1964 Ford, the 1965 Dump Truck, and a 1967 and 1968 Mack truck had engines blown and pulled clutches. Morris said that the storm of two weeks ago had cost $30,000. He had no figures yet for the present storm. He told the Selectmen he would have to increase the figures in the Town Budget for snow removal.

Other Business

The Selectmen had a bit of to-do about the streets that are to be accepted in the Town Meeting.

The Planning Board had signed the plans Tuesday night, and it was now up to the Selectmen to formally 'lay out' the streets, in accordance with the law.

But there were some differences of opinion, with Mrs. Drew being the principal contender.

She refused to sign the plan for Wildwood Street. She announced that she would not 'sign it at all!' She made a motion to 'Not to vote a layout of Wildwood Street, and report to the town'.

Her motion was seconded by James Banda.

And then the Selectmen just didn't vote for Wildwood Street.

Adams Street had a little discussion, but there was none on any of the others.

The lady wanted to know if the residents of Adams Street really wanted the street as it is now shown on the plan. Banda said that the people certainly had accepted it, and in fact they wanted the sidewalks that the people on Wildwood Street were objecting to.

With that the Selectmen signed the plans for the rest of the streets, Adams, Clark, Hopkins, Webber and West Streets, and Hanson and Woodland Roads.

First Contract

The Town Manager and the Selectmen signed a Labor Agreement with the Wilmington Police Department employees, for two years. This is the first that has been signed this year, of employees who are under the Town Manager.

Still to be signed are the Town Employees agreement, the Firemen's agreement and the Public Buildings employees agreement.

The Selectmen received an invitation from Congressman Brad Morse to meet with him at the Lexington Town Hall on February

Nosey Nancy

Send your announcements to Nancy, Box 208, Wilmington, or call 657-7141, and after five 658-4865. If I'm not there, I'll call you.

Man, oh Man, and this chick almost didn't make it in here today, if it hadn't been for the competent chauffeur she has had in these snowstorms while going to coffee hours at the Lake on Monday night, and to Arline Ave on Tuesday night in the wild, wild New England storm, she never would have made it...Don Robbins of Arline Avenue offered to this gal his snowmobile to travel back and forth on the campaign circuit, and she almost took him up on the offer. However, the roads had to get all loused up by being plowed...and speaking of plowing

Our boys really take the medals this week in this storm. You note that they kept ahead of it this time as much as was humanly possible. We talked to Sterling Monday night about 4 pm at the Town Hall, while the storm was gathering a momentum, and offered to bring him a submarine sandwich from Big Joe's, while he still had a chance...But he reneged, and said he was going to make it home, by Gosh...Wonder if he had to ride the Hough?

At the height of the storm, who blew (and he literally did) into the station - all 220 lbs and 6 ft 5 or so of him-Bill Manning from Lloyd Road. Now, if you don't know, my friend Bill is a commercial fisherman, and he said it was plenty rough coming in and also that he had to go back the next morning to unload...Anyway Bill, you're on the scene this time...Last year, Bill was taken ill at sea, and they put him ashore to the hospital in Nova Scotia...That's a long way from home to be when you're sick. He had problems during most of the summer, we understand, but we've never seen him fitter than yesterday...Atta Boy, Bill!

The Temple Shalom will have continuing Sunday Services at the Temple on Salem Street in Wm-

The Big? in Carpeting

Now there are Olifins and Polyesters and blends of all these fibers. Naturally, each chemical company declares their fiber is superior to all the rest.

Who do you believe?

It took many years (hard working years) to build up a knowledge of fibers. We field test each fiber before we sell it. If we can't tell you how a particular fiber will behave... we won't sell it.

"Our Reputation Is Your Guarantee"

The first carpet fiber was Wool. Then came Cotton. Nylon and Acrylic followed third and fourth. There were a few other fibers in between but they didn't pan out and were short lived.

Wilmington, commencing next Sunday at 10:30 to 11:00 am. All Girl Scouts and their parents are particularly invited to attend. A Purim Party will be held this Sunday after the service.

George Quinn sloshed his way into the Depot yesterday to issue a special invitation to all of you folks in Town and any you can wheedle from out of Town to participate in the Blood Drive, which is being held on the 28th from 1:00 to 6:45 at the Maple Meadow Hall by the Knights of Columbus and the Masons.

Let's get with it and get your friends...The blood is needed!

Reserve the 28th of March for the Carter Lecture Program. It is the 60th Anniversary Program and will be held in the High School Auditorium at 8:15 pm with free admission for Wilmington Residents. This year the lecture will be given by the second mate of the 'Sande Fjord', a Norwegian Cache which was discovered in South Africa in 1963 and refitted in 1965 and sailed from Durban So. Africa to the Trade Winds in the Atlantic to the West Indies through the Panama Canal to the Pacific and the South Seas back to South Africa. This should be very interesting trip!

Hey, Gals, we've been certainly neglecting Nellie lately, with all of the politicking that has had to be done etc. Now, that chick needs yard...You must have collected at least some yarn scraps by now. It's almost at the end of the winter (she said) as she gazed out on the mountains of snow! Now, if you haven't, please send your dollar to Nellie Thompson at 15 Shawsheen Avenue, in Wilmington. We are still short of our goal for afghans for the Naval Hospital.

Speaking of veterans...don't forget the boys overseas...It's almost Easter, in fact it will be by the time they get your mail, although this doesn't seem at all possible this minute (we may still be under seven feet of snow by then) but the boys will want to hear from as many of you as can spare the time...They tell me that it really boosts their morale! Let's go...I hope it's none of our kids that are sitting in the midst of a tigers nest over there, but I suspect some of them might be.

We were surprised and delighted to receive another letter from No 7 son this week: 'Hi Ma, Well I had time to write so I thought I would drop you a short line or two. Well, everything, is fine and dandy here, and I hope it stays this way for a while.

'Well Ma, Tet starts in two days which is the 17th. Tet is their Christmas and New Year all in one. Well, Ma, we have been moving the firebases around later like it is going out of style.

'Well, the other day, we lost the 105 Battery to Bico. (?)

'And we joined the rest of the company at LZ. Pat with a battery of 8 inch guns. We were only there one night and the next morning the 2nd and 3rd platoons moved out on a 3 or 4 day mission across the big blue line with our tracks and we set a patrol base on a hill and right below us was a small blue line and while the 2nd platoon was out on a patrol, the 3rd platoon went swimming all day. We found a place in the Blue Line that was about 15 feet and we dove off at rock and we had a great time.

'Well, Ma, Chuck is gone now Well, that's the breaks of the game I'll write you later, so bye for now

'Love long lost number 7 son, Bill. P.S. Where did Chuck go for basic training, and I hope you win the election! Bill.'

(Hi, Willie! Choag hasn't written to me yet, which figgers! How ever he has sent a letter to you know who and the address is as follows: Pvt Charles D Clark Co D, 7th Bn, 2nd Bct Bde, Ft Jackson, South Carolina 29207) Drop him a line. He certainly will be glad. He was sure homesick when I talked to him last, but you know, what that rock n roll group at home entails, and he probably just missed the noise. As far as the election...Things are encouraging and found out you guys could have had absentee ballots this year, so should have sent them to you all, although don't believe many of you are 21 as yet But it would have been fun anyway!)

And we hear that Barney and Vi McMahon are off to San Francisco on Thursday to the Principals conference. While he was shovelling endlessly with the rest of the group this week, this chick asked him how he'd like the rain out there...He thinks it will be sunshine compared to this...Hope that they get off all right and they have a grand time. They are a great couple and we do enjoy them for neighbors!

Say Gals, did you get your driveway plowed out. We know some people who are very very happy, and we know some who aren't.

The happy ones, of course, did get plowed out, and perhaps they stayed plowed out too, in spite of the snow trucks.

But there are two unhappy families who called to tell of the prices they paid.

Two driveways, one of them admittedly long, the total cost was $75, and it took the driver and his jeep half an hour for the two. They got to comparing notes, after the job was done.

And lady, are they sizzling! Speaking of plowing out, did you notice your lack of mail for the last couple of days. This really does not have anything to do with plowing out, just that there wasn't any mail brought into town, but that didn't stop Leo anyway...Notice he went on his outside tour in spite of rain snow water or sleet, and I do believe he was the only one!

Now they tell me there are 6 inches more coming...In case they don't...While you are down to the Plaza doing your shopping for the next storm, take a look into Sherwin and Williams window and see the results of the Teenage Sweetheart Contest that is sponsored by Jameway Studios Jim McFarland, the proprietor of Jameway Studios would like you to vote on the one you think should be the Teenage Sweetheart...It's been kind of hard to get this thing accomplished because of all of this weather, so back Jim up is the word tonight!

HEAVIEST SNOWFALL EVER

youngster leaving the bus, the errant school boy in the street.

Every morning there are 4800 children who leave their homes for school. Harold Shea does not want any accidents, because of the extra heavy snowfall.

According to the records of the Weather Bureau at Boston, the area now has the heaviest accumulation of snow ever since recording of snow fall was started, locally.

The Wilmington Water Department recorded twenty inches in the snow fall of Monday night, and another ten inches as of yesterday morning. Together with the snowfall of two weeks ago the total is about fifty inches in Wilmington.

The Rev. Stanley Cummings, the former minister of the Congregational Church, now retired, once remarked about a friend of his who, from the pulpit, during a funeral service, had said that the deceased had never missed a Rotary meeting, but did not appear frequently in the church pews.

Stanley Cummings should know whereof he spoke, as he was, among other things, the Secretary of the Wilmington Rotary for nearly a dozen years.

Such a story is not to be told of Harold Foley, who runs the Shamrock Drive In, but it can be said that he is a 100% Rotarian.

Tuesday night, thinking of the schedule meeting of Rotary at noon time on Wednesday, Harold went down with his jeep to the Masonic Hall, and plowed out the parking lot.

Wednesday morning, at nine am he was there again, on the job, purely in a volunteer status.

He finished about 10:30 am and went down to his office to call the president - Dick Tufenkjian of

HEAD START PROGRAM FUNDS APPROVED

This money is to be combined with $2,901 in local funds.

Sweetheart Plastics, and announce the good news - that the lot was all plowed out.

Harold had to wait a minute or two, until Dick finished with the telephone call.

He was over three-quarters of the way through the Wilmington Rotary list of members, and had told each member that there would be no meeting!

No one knows who was most crest-fallen - Harold or Dick!

The Audio - Visual equipment of the Baptist Church

JACK MOORE: At the controls of the Audio-Visual equipment of the First Baptist Church, David Spinney of Lawrence Street is his assistant.

It was Open House, Sunday afternoon, at the Wilmington Baptist Church, but the one thing that was not seen by the guests was the console of the audio-visual equipment for the church.

To see the equipment one has to climb a rather frail ladder, in the front of the church, to a room which is above the vestibule. The ladder looks frail. It is sturdy, but it is also a challenge.

The equipment was installed by Jack P. Moore of Westdale Avenue, and is used many times during the course of a week.

Through a patch-panel arrangement, sound originating from five different areas by microphone, or two tape recorders, a phonograph, a movie projector, and an AM/FM tuner can be fed into nine different locations, including the sanctuary, the vestibule, downstairs, the nursery, outside, and two areas of the adjacent building.

The voice of the minister, for instance, or anyone at the pulpit, can be amplified and directed to any of the nine locations, as desired. The choir, and plays which are staged may also be amplified.

The Sunday morning worship service is recorded each week, and taken to the shut-ins. Since everything is done in stereo, these people have the feeling of 'being there'.

Movies, slides and film strips are projected from the control room to the white wall above the pulpit, and the sound is enhanced while going through the sound system. Lights are also controlled from the control room, so that, for instance, to get a 'fading action' is easily achieved.

A telephone system connects the control room with most parts of the church, and there is a silent signalling system for communication with the ushers, and others, for instance, cues and other instructions during a play.

The amplifiers are equipped with constant voltage output, which means that it is easy to add new speakers any where in the building if it is so desired, or in a new educational building, which will be built someday.

If the church should someday have occasion to have a broadcast over a local station it will be an easy thing to do. Simply hook up the audio-visual system with the radio station via telephone. It will be as easy as eating apple pie!

All the equipment has now been installed with the exception of a 'follow-spot' (spotlight), to be used when having plays.

Jack Moore, who has done most of the work, typically credits the good work to the hands of the Lord.

Webelo Scouts Thomas Marden and Steven LeFavour were graduated into Boy Scouts, Tr 58, by Mr Leo Walsh and were presented with the troop neckerchief.

Following the awards to the boys certificates of appreciation were presented to the Den Mothers and Webelo Leaders for the work and cooperation during the past year.

Father Leahy accepted the Pack Charter for the coming year from Mr John Duffett and thanked all the leaders and parents for their assistance to the Pack.

A plaque was given to Mr Georg Peters, who is retiring, from the Cubs, as a small token of their appreciation for all of his endeavors as Cubmaster since the Pack was formed in April 1966.

A thank-you pin was given to Mrs Peters for assistance with records.

A thank-you pin was given to Mrs Evelyn Kaminski for her help with the Pack as Den Leader Coach and Mr James Duval was given a plaque for service as Pack Chairman during the Past year.

The program was adjourned for the evening after a few words from Mr. Peters.

Here are a few helpful hints regarding medicines in your own home:

(1) Be sure to store all drugs out of the way of small children, under lock and key if you have to . . . .

(2) Never take or give medicine in the dark. Be sure the label can be read clearly . . . .

(3) Before measuring liquid medicine, always shake the bottle thoroughly . . . .

(4) Weed out the leftovers regularly from the home medicine chest - especially any prescription drugs that may have been ordered for a prior illness . . . .

(5) When you throw away drugs, flush them down the toilet so discarded containers cannot be reached by children or pets.

Another helpful hint is to always come to the SILVER LAKE PHARMACY, 52 Main Street, for all of your prescription needs. The Sundry Department includes cosmetics, candy, and greeting cards. Open EVERY DAY from 9 to 10. Call 658-4617.

HELPFUL HINT: To keep linens from yellowing, paint the inside of your linen closet a medium shade of blue.

With Your Servicemen

To the layman, the USS Mattaponi would be called a 'tanker' but in the language of the US Navy she is an 'oiler'. Constructed for service in World War II, she is now a part of the Seventh Fleet, operating off the coast of Vietnam, and is kept busy supplying fuel and water to the vessels of that fleet.

The Mattaponi, like all Fleet Oilers, is named after an American river, in this case one in Virginia in which some of the desperate fighting of 1864 took place, as Gen.

Grant continued his relentless advance on Richmond.

The ship is commanded by Capt. C. E. Hathaway, USN, and the pictures on this page, official Navy photographs, were taken by Al Smith, Ch. Photographer, US Navy.

The subject of the picture is Fred V. Shine, 20 year old son of Mr and Mrs James M. Shine of 6 Grove Avenue. Fred is a Seaman Apprentice aboard the Mattaponi, having served on her for the past six months.

FRED SHINE: Rigs a 'Bos'n's Chair', which is a portable (after a fashion) type of seat in which seamen go aloft to oil or tar the rigging of a ship. Judging from the photograph Fred is about to go aloft and grease one of the topping lifts, wires which hold up the cargo booms. He is also kept busy, as a Seaman Apprentice, in such mundane duties as standing watch, and chipping paint, a duty relished by all seamen, in the ever lasting fight to keep ahead of the rust.

A SEAMAN ALOFT: Greasing the running rigging for a cargo boom. The information to the Town Crier did not say that it was Fred Shine, but it could very well be. This is work that he is called upon to perform almost daily. The seaman is seated in a 'Bos'n's Chair', of the type that Fred was shown rigging.

A SEVENTH FLEET DESTROYER: Comes alongside the Mattaponi, at sea, to replenish with fuel oil or water, or perhaps both. The Mattaponi is kept busy serving the ships of the Seventh Fleet.

Walter 'Tobey' Hale is one of the latest to get out of the Service. He arrived home about two weeks ago, with his wife and children, after four years in the Air Force, much of it spent in Florida. Tobey was a Medic. Right now he is enjoying being a Civilian.

John J. Pilcher, who is a seaman on board the USS St. Paul, flagship for the First Fleet, is in San Diego but recently spent five days at Acapulco, on the West Coast of Mexico, when the ship stopped over in that fabulous port and vacation resort. The crew members all got leave to see the sights, including the High Divers of Quebrada, in which natives dive off a 135 foot cliff into the ocean.

The St. Paul is shortly to leave for Vietnam.

John is the son of Mr and Mrs Pilcher of 9 Carter Lane, and the husband of the former Dorothy Hersom.

Jimmy Solas, son of Mr and Mrs Nicholas Solas of 22 Boutwell St. completed his reconnaissance training on January 24th at the Army Armor Center, Fort Knox, Kentucky. Jimmy underwent eight weeks of training in the methods of scouting and patrolling, with emphasis on the operation of Army jeeps on rugged terrain.

Jimmy, who is a graduate of Bryant and Stratton College, is a National Guardsman, and is now home, his training stint completed.

Billy Iovanna, who is a Communications Technician Second Class on board the aircraft carrier USS Constellation, is again in San Diego, California, after a tour of duty off the coast of South Vietnam.

Billy is the son of Mrs Joseph E McCabe of 1 Pond Street.

Dennis J. Martin, son of Mr and Mrs Jesse Martin of 8 Oakridge Circle was recently promoted to Sergeant, in the US Army. He is stationed near Can Tho, in Vietnam, and is a security guard with Advisory Team 96.

Major Donald Farnham of Wildwood Street has been in this column on several occasions. He is one of the most highly decorated soldiers in the US Army.

But this column never knew that he had twice been awarded the Silver Star for Gallantry.

It was reported in this paper that he had twice been recommended for the Silver Star, but no news ever came of his having received those awards. And there are people in Wilmington today who were recommended for the Silver Star, and who never got it. It isn't an easy medal to get.

Donald was stationed at Fort Rucker, in Alabama, teaching the art of combat flying in helicopters. He has been transferred to the University of Nebraska, where he will remain until the middle of July. Then he is to again see duty in Germany.

Donald's present address is Maj. Donald Farnham, US Army, 630 South 68th Ave., Omaha, Nebraska, 68106.

Minot Anderson was Outstanding Citizen

Funeral services were held in the United Methodist Church Monday afternoon for Minot J. Anderson, 61, 336 Lowell Street Park. Mr. Anderson had passed away at his home on February 21st.

A resident of Wilmington since August 1945, he was a man of rugged honesty, and occupied a place of respect in the community. By profession he was a builder and civil engineer, a self-taught man, and in earlier life he was a well known contractor in the building of bridges throughout New England. At the time when he moved to Wilmington he was a professional cost estimator, for contracts, for an engineering firm in Boston.

He was appointed to the Finance Committee about five years after he moved to Wilmington and then resigned after a few years of service, saying that he could do more good for the town off the committee, than on it.

In 1958 Minot Anderson was appointed Building Inspector, a position he held for eight years. At the completion of his service he was given a testimonial by the people of Wilmington for his sterling service to the town.

It was obviously no longer suitable for residence districting. But after Gillis read his list she had a change of mind, and remarked that the land was 'too valuable for junk'. The board voted unanimously to be in favor of a General Business zone for the Concord Street land.

The board was not in favor of the proposed changes in Article 68, either. This was to change the methods of sewerage for the proposed motel, or any other in Wilmington, as Mr Hooper pointed out.

Mrs McKie had an amendment to the article, which she read: 'Provided, however, that the Board of Health, acting in accordance with the provisions of Section VII-2 of this (town) By-Law, and after a favorable report of the sewer commissioners, may determine that access to a municipal sewer would be a hardship. In the event that such a determination be forthcoming, the Board of Health shall provide such regulations as it deems necessary for the installation and maintenance of a sewerage treatment plant to be located within the bounds of the property as an accessory to the use of the land'.

The lady then referred to the Conservancy District map, which showed two areas on the southerly side of the land, near the Concord River, as part of the Conservancy District, and remarked that the Conservancy areas there should be 'untouched'.

The board voted unanimously to accept the amendment as a part of their recommendation to the Town Meeting.

Lucci Rezoning

A letter from seven Strout Ave. residents had been received by the board, opposing the rezoning of the Lucci Plaza area to General Business.

Walter Hale opened the discussion by saying that he favored General Business zoning for the area.

Mrs McKie pointed out that within a year the Master Plan studies would be completed, and she felt that the time to rezone would be then. There would be at that time, she said, something which might be called a Commercial District, which would allow other types of retail business, without opening up an area for all the provisions in a General Business zone.

We don't have the proper kind of zoning for that kind of development she told the board.

Mr Hale said that the board could disapprove if it wished - and if the town wanted to vote it - 'OK'

Gillis spoke up in favor of having a General Business zone. 'We have a General Business character there - he brought it up from just one shack, to a presentable area'.

'I think he does have the use, and where he wants to put in a dry-cleaner - my own personal statement last year was that it should be a General Business zone'

THERE'S NO BUSINESS LIKE SNOW BUSINESS: After thirty inches of snow in two days. The Stephen Berecz Company of Main Street which services and sells snow blowers, was never really overcrowded, Wednesday, but there were always two or three customers in the place, all day long.

Bob Wilkinson is shown taking care of three snow conscious men.

Mrs McKie - 'uses in a General Business zone - gasoline stations' Hale: The Selectmen wouldn't vote for it.

Mrs McKie: Motel, clubhouse, lodge, furniture store, open air business, -

Hale: I move we approve.

Gillis seconded, and the vote was two to two - a tie, with the fifth member, Bill Hanlon, still unable to attend meetings as a result of his illness of several weeks ago.

But the tie was resolved later, when Gillis re-opened the question, saying that they had to make a decision. In the interests of unanimity, he said, the decision should be one way or the other, and he moved to deny the proposal. His motion was voted unanimously

Apartment Buildings

It was a three to one vote against the proposal to put apartments in on Woburn Street.

Mr. Hale moved that the board approve 'to start the discussion'. In the final vote he was in favor, and the others against.

Mrs McKie said that there were ambiguities in the proposal. The proposal, she noted, had taken out all reference to the Board of Appeals actions, in the Sam Snow report, and she further said that the 'Fire Lane' was not distinctly defined.

'A semi-detached building' she said - 'What is that?' 'Any use in an SRA district - Does this mean individual buildings?'

Hale asked her why didn't the board come up with some amendments.

Mrs McKie: We are waiting for the Master Plan. That will be completed within a year. I think that to stall the question for one more year won't hurt'

Hooper pointed out that Sam Snow, the previous Planning Consultant, had recommended 2 1/2 stories, and this was asking for 3. The recommendations, he said, were for 300 feet, and this proposed 200 feet frontage. The front yard depth had been changed from 50 to 30 feet, Hooper said, and the minimum side yard from 30 to 15 feet.

Gillis: We demanded Fire Proof Construction. Is this Fire Proof?

Mrs McKie: Fire Resistant.

Gillis: Fire Proof Materials. If it isn't in there I am against it.

The vote, as before reported, was three to one against.

The next Article (75) to change the Zoning Map for Garden Apartments, had little discussion. There was a three to nothing vote, Mr. Hale abstaining.

Other Business

The board noted jubilantly that there had been a vote in the State legislature to have wires for power lines placed underground.

Mrs McKie thought it was 'marvelous'. Gillis said 'All that moaning and groaning - it was the storm that did it!'

The board noted that there is to be a Governor's Conference at the Sheraton-Boston hotel, on April 16th on Human Resources and Community Affairs.

A letter was received from the Massachusetts Roadside Council acknowledging the stand of the Wilmington Planning Board with reference to signs, and reported that State Senator Ronald MacKenzie had appeared at the hearing for one bill (1568) and had supported the Roadside Council stand.

Gillis: That's the way - Cain on Bridges, and MacKenzie on signs!

HORRIBLE COVER

The Annual Town Report for the year 1968 has been printed, and copies may now be obtained in the Town Hall. Copies will also be available for distribution at the polls, in Wilmington High School, on Saturday.

The color combination for the cover is a 'mustard yellow' and brown, and there are four diagonal lines, one in each corner, in a very unattractive setting. When asked about the cover the Town Manager grimaced and said 'It's not my work'.

The cover is supposed to emphasize, it is believed, a picture of the town hall painting of Selectman Charles H. Black.

WHAT'S 30 INCHES OF SNOW? Sam Perry, of High Street, 87 years old, always plows out a driveway or two for his neighbors, after each snow storm with his home-made tractor, and he didn't let the thirty inches of Monday and Tuesday keep him from his accustomed task.
